May 7-14, 2020, Preview May 5-6

RYAN LEE is pleased to present a selection of works by represented gallery artists at Frieze New York. The twelve artists presented here reflect the gallery's program's commitment to reflect artistic range from a spectrum of various creative perspectives. Ranging from Sandy Skoglund's surrealist take on a seemingly drab office space, to Martine Gutierrez's iteration of the blonde starlet's tarnished iconography, to Clifford Ross's reverational gaze upon nature's sublime beauty, the works presented here touch upon diverse mediums, subjects and point of views. This will be the first time that RYAN LEE presents artists Gideon Rubin and Kota Ezawa, both of whom have exhibited internationally and whose work the gallery is excited to add to the roster. Their work respectively add a sense of lyricism and poignancy to the collection of works represented by the gallery.
